

LIVERPOOL DOMESTIC VIOLENCE LIAISON COMMITTEE

presents

“MOTHERING in the Context of Domestic and Family Violence – Before and After Separation”

Dr. Elspeth McInnes AM is a sociologist with research interests in gendered violence and parental separation and is currently working at the University of South Australia. She is the current convenor of WEAVE Incorporated, Women Everywhere Advocating Violence Elimination, which seeks to reduce and prevent violence in families and in the wider society. She continues to be an active advocate in policy critique in the areas of family violence, child abuse and child protection.

The forum will cover 2 key topics relating to domestic violence:

1. Women's experiences of the Family Law Act since the 2006 changes and the Impact this has had as they negotiate the Family Law System and child contact.
2. The impact of domestic violence on child development and its consequences.
